MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. George Cary
Office of the Legislative Counsel

SUBJECT: Suggested Expert Witnesses for the Subcommittee on Economic Statistics, Joint Economic Committee

1. We have been informally asked by Mr. John W. Lehman, Economist for the subject Subcommittee, for a list of expert witnesses who might be called upon to prepare papers for the Subcommittee in its comparison of the US and Soviet economic system. We are attaching our suggestions.

2. One major departure was made from the list of topics included in the release of the Subcommittee, dated 8 April 1959. Item 6., Levels of Living and Incentives in the Soviet and United States Economies, has been divided into two parts, the first dealing solely with a comparison of levels of living and the second treating the problems of incentives. Such a division would permit a much more definitive treatment of a major problem facing the Soviet leadership, i.e., that of obtaining an efficient utilization of resources.

3. Will you please pass the enclosure to Mr. Lehman?
